

Lurid Purple Flowers bio:

From Boston, Lurid Purple Flowers pulls threads from their hard rock, psych, and funk influences to create their debut EP, Mania. Frontwoman CA Newcomb's writing is gritty and dark, but with hopeful notes that resonate throughout the entire project. Bassist Ben Caito brings a heavy funk influence to the lineup, while drumming prodigy Nick White on the kit rounds out the band's huge sound. A new EP, No Sympathy, is set for September 2022 release, led by August single "Addict."
